

POLICY

Ocean County College must continuously analyze its approaches, procedures, and programs to insure the best possible education for its students.

To meet this need, the college shall maintain a program of institutional review.

For the purposes of this policy, institutional review is defined to be a self-study conducted by faculty or staff involving any aspect of the college. Appropriate procedures shall be developed to implement this policy.